Explore Parodies with Natasha Wing!

A "parody" is a humorous imitation of a certain writing style or genre of writing. Natasha Wing is a children's book author who is famous for writing funny, rhyme-filled parodies about different holidays & family events.

Each of Wing's "Night Before..." tales is a parody of Clement C. Moore's "'Twas The Night Before Christmas." The stories are full of vocabulary, relatable events, & fun rhymes.

Explore over 20 titles for your family & friends to enjoy as additions to your home or classroom library!

Point your phone camera at each of these QR codes to access Clement C. Moore's tale & two of Wing's stories read aloud to explore "parodies."
